DAWAH
DEPARTMENT

SPREADING THE MESSAGE...

Being one of the foundation programs within the UMA, the Dawah Department, comprising of both brothers and sisters' teams was established with the vision to serve the community. To accomplish our religious duties of spreading the message of Allah and the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) within the Australian community to both Muslims and Non-Muslims, we aim to always expand, upskill and fill as many gaps as possible within the community's needs.

The Dawah Department revolves around 4 main principles:

- 01 Developing outstanding Brotherhood and Sisterhood within the UMA community.
- 02 Promoting the message of Allah and His Final Prophet to all members of society in a respectful and honest manner.
- 03 Developing zeal, passion and knowledge to become better worshippers and to support others in improving their worship.
- 04 Continuously explore opportunities for growth, development and enhancement to offer new programs to meet the demands of the community.

The Dawah Department focuses on reaching all members of the community to provide an opportunity to give back, develop a clearer perception and deliver a solid understanding of Islam for both Muslims and Non-Muslims.

This has been achieved through the following...

- Developing programs and frameworks to educate others on the Islamic faith.
- Building social cohesion and a greater understanding of the authentic teachings of Islam through the 'Street Dawah' Program.
- Delivering a comprehensive system of inviting and educating people about Islam.
- Working with other like minded organisations to achieve common goals.

STRENGTHENING THE BROTHERHOOD...

UMA Brotherhood Camps

The UMA Brotherhood Camps are held twice a year, reaching out to over 400 Muslims. The aim of the camps is to revive the Muslim spirit, strengthen the brotherhood and embed the Muslim identity within the youth.

Running over three days, the camp program is packed with spiritual reminders, sporting competitions, food, social gatherings, and of course the brotherhood bond all in an Islamic environment.

For many brothers, these short camps have been life-changing.

UMA Father Son Camp

Dads are invited to bring their sons, aged between 10 and 14 years, for a few days away to spend some time quality time together away from all distractions.

While away, fathers have the time to further develop and build their relationship with their sons while strengthening that bond they share as well. As the facilitators, we plan and organise lots of fun activities and entertainment for everyone to do together. These camps are appreciated and enjoyed because of the nurturing and friendly Islamic environment we provide.

The UMA Father Son Camp also identifies young leaders within the youth and fosters their skills to pursue leadership roles at future camps or possibly become future leaders of the UMA.

UMA Family Camp

Being a volunteer, or having several members in the family volunteer at the centre, can at times be demanding, so a short getaway is always loved. UMA Family Camps are held once a year to help families connect and spend quality time together. These camps are dedicated to family time.

The environment at the family camp is loved by everyone because it's very relaxed yet still spiritual. It's a time where we can get away from the volunteering role and really enjoy each other's company. It's a time where new friendships are made and existing bonds are strengthened.

The ageing of the population will expand the need for aged care services. The UMA Conference - Quest for Success is held at one of Australia's landmark locations, Sydney Showground, Sydney Olympic Park – Homebush. Our conference serves to inspire positive change within an Islamic friendly environment, providing Dawah and most importantly uniting the community under the banner of Islam. The event features inspirational and prominent international and local speakers from various educational backgrounds and Islamic schools of thought. The speakers offer invaluable advice on how to attain success in this world and in the Hereafter.

The stage plays home to a multitude of speakers who will capture the hearts and minds of the audience. The event has not only hosted well known speakers but renowned Quran reciters, entertainers and nasheed artists, attracting thousands of Muslims from across the Australian continent. Mums and bubs are welcome to enjoy the talks from our specially equipped mothers room.

There are a variety of other activities happening around the conference as well. A separate building accommodates the market stalls and the younger children's entertainment area, jumping castles and rides. Alternatively, you can choose to leave your younger children at the on-site professional child minding facility.

Youth can be entertained in the dedicated youth area where supervised sports and recreational activities are held. We also have a variety of halal food trucks for a quick bite to eat.

The conference is a unique all-day family event enjoyed by all.

The UMA is committed to providing ongoing initiatives and services to the community with the highest level of professionalism.
