Who is the UMA?

The United Muslims of Australia (UMA) is a non-profit, community and Islamic dawah organisation, that focuses on reviving the Islamic spirit in people’s lives, in accordance to the Quran and Sunnah, within a balanced framework of Islamic teachings.

The UMA was established in 2002, as a place for the Muslim youth to socialise and participate in a variety of educational, recreational and religious activities. It is currently one of Australia’s largest Islamic youth and dawah centres, recognised around the world for the positive impact it has on people’s lives.

Over the years, the UMA has provided continuous support to the community, to ensure today’s youth are equipped with the skills to become confident and outstanding members of the wider Australian community. The UMA has always been at the forefront, catering its services to the needs of the culturally diverse Australian Muslim community.

Allah (SWT) says
“And who is better in speech than he who says: My Lord is Allah (believes in His Oneness), and then stands firm (acts upon His Order), and invites (men) to Allah’s (Islamic Monotheism), and does righteous deeds, and says: I am one of the Muslims.”
